BEVERLY EAVES PERDUE
GOVERNOR

October 3, 2010

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the State of North Carolina, it is a pleasure to offer warm greetings to everyone attending the 1st Annual Stop Child Trafficking Now Raleigh Walk. It is my privilege to join you in recognizing the significance of this growing concern, and in sharing your message of hope to the community.

Children are our greatest resource and ensuring that they are safe from predators takes the effort of the entire community. This inaugural walk is the beginning of promoting awareness and outreach in communities across our state about child trafficking and measures to put an end to it in North Carolina, our nation and throughout the world.

Best wishes and thank you for your dedication.

Sincerely,

Bev Perdue
